

Molly's First Vacation, Part 3

Molly visited the home of Mary Todd Lincoln in Lexington, Kentucky.

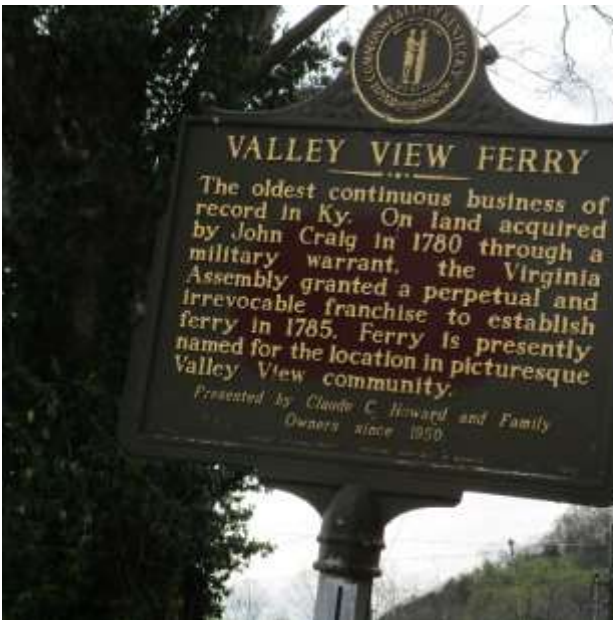

She made clear that her favorite part was the garden out back.

Molly gets her first boat ride – the ferry across the Kentucky River

(Between Lexington and Richmond, Kentucky)

At Pleasant Hill Shaker Village south of Lexington, Kentucky, Molly experiments with operating the farm equipment.

The building architecture is like the Shaker communities in New Hampshire

...but the wall construction in Kentucky is somewhat different than in New England
